The British Columbian.

SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1869.

Take the Bull by the Horns.

Probably in no period of our history, as a colony, was it more important that the people should think deeply and act promptly. Perhaps in no instance could division and indecision prove more fatal. We have been endeavouring to place the impending issue before the public mind, in a spirit of earnestness and firmness. Looking at both sides, committed to none, we have seen that the weight of evidence, of argument is clearly on the side of a free port for Vancouver Island. Nobody contends that any system is without its drawbacks. We frankly admit that the free port theory has its difficulties and objections. Has the protection theory none? Balance the evils of the one theory against those of the other, and the question is, "Which kicks the beam?" We have observed in certain quarters a disposition to raise the cry, "Free port or no Confederation," on the one hand, and "Protection or no Confederation," on the other. Both are wrong. The latter is the wronger. In former articles we have taken pains to show that the people are not in a position to assume such an attitude towards Confederation. Of the correctness of the position we have taken on this point most persons are, we venture to think, convinced. At any rate, it is the safest position to take. Looking at the matter in this light, it becomes no less the duty of the people to employ every means for securing a free port as a condition, provided they consider a free port desirable. But when people begin to talk about "Free Port or no Confederation," we are bound to conclude that they do not truly apprehend the "situation." We have said that of these two false positions that of the protectionists is the worst. It certainly is the least defensible. The free port absolutists have at least logic and consistency on their side. The protectionists have neither. Let us examine the position which this latter party—if, indeed, it may be dignified by the term party—really occupies; and in doing so we will deal with the subject entirely apart from the relative intrinsic merits of the two theories. The protectionists are those who assert that it is more important to keep out Yankee hay, grain, pork, butter, eggs and vegetables than to let in the Yankee customers to buy our silks, clothing, prints, wines, tobaccos &c. These people say "Protection or no Confederation," meaning of course, that unless Vancouver Island come under the federal tariff of customs they will have no Confederation; but, unfortunately for their position, the federal tariff admits either free or at a merely nominal rate of duty the very articles in respect of which protection is preached? But, furthermore, Confederation will bring with it a Reciprocity Treaty between the Dominion and the United States. Under that treaty, those articles that it is sought to protect will be absolutely free! These very men who are preaching "Protection, or no Confederation," are perfectly well aware of all this. In truth, they are the very men who, not long ago, used the fact that Confederation would bring with it a reciprocity treaty as an argument in favor of this Colony seeking admission into the Dominion. This cry of protection is, therefore, a dishonest one. It is a delusion and a snare. Confederation is our destiny. He who would prevent its accomplishment occupies much the position of the old woman who endeavoured with her broom to beat back the ocean wave. Confederation will virtually sweep away the very protection it is claimed we need. We cannot keep our cake and eat it. We cannot have Confederation and Protection. The question for the colonists to decide is not whether they will have protection or a free port. It is simply a choice between Confederation with a free port, and Confederation without either protection or a free port. The proposition may appear somewhat paradoxical; but it is none the less true for all that. This is really the "situation," and it is much better that the people should at once take the bull by the horns and look him fair and square in the face.

Political Education.

Mr. Disraeli, not long ago, talked about educating the English mind up to a certain standard. It has been educated far above his standard, and he is left, like an old fossil down, down in the old red sandstone formation. Recent events indicate a marvellous stride in the direction of liberalism—almost republicanism. One by one the ancient landmarks disappear under the flood-tide of freer thought and action. Leveling up and leveling down is working a complete transformation, and England of to day looks at England of half a century ago much as a chignoned Grecian-bender of the period would look upon the mammoth-crinolined skyscraper of the past. The passage of the last Reform Bill was a great triumph to liberalism, in no way lessened by the circumstance of a Tory ministry having been compelled to father the measure. The Irish Church Disestablishment bill is a greater triumph still. True, the Lords have not yet passed it; but the PEOPLE have, and woe be to the Lords if they reject it! Another bill which, although attracting little attention, is a breaking away from old musty prejudices, has recently passed a second reading in the House of Commons, by a majority of eighty-eight. We allude to the bill for legalizing marriage with a deceased wife's sister. It by no means follows, however, that this bill will become law. On a former occasion a similar one reached the House of Lords, where it was killed. That the present measure will provoke strong opposition there can be no doubt. That it will share the fate of its predecessor is quite possible; but that a similar measure will find its way into the statutes of the United Kingdom before many more Parliaments come and go, may well be taken for granted. Canadian legislation, years ago, enabled a man to marry the sister of his deceased wife, and one of England's most talented Divines has recently transferred himself to that Province in order to enjoy her freer political economy.

SCIENTIFIC ATROCITES.—A writer in a London journal says. "We have a report from Germany of a so-called scientific experiment, the perpetrator of which ought—if he is secure from legal punishment—to be scouted from association with all honorable members of one of the noblest of professions. We all shuddered when we heard of the cruel experiments on live animals made in some of the French veterinary hospitals. But Dr. Von Trautvetter of Berlin (we have the authority of the Lancet for our statement) has been guilty of an atrocity which almost exceeds belief. Being curious to know the effect on human intestines of certain injections, he experimented on a young woman who was supposed to be dying of consumption, and actually subjected the wretched helpless creature to an experiment the hideous nature of which we cannot describe, and which must have inflicted terrible torture at the very time when tenderness and human sympathy should have been exerted to lessen the natural agonies of approaching dissolution. She died an hour afterwards; and the surgeon then was able to satisfy himself by a post mortem examination of the effect he had produced; and the case is reported as a matter of scientific interest in the Prussian journals. The Lancet mentions the experiment as an "ugly feature," and rather thinks that experiments on inferior animals might have sufficed. About two years ago we noticed in the Dispatch the conduct of a French surgeon, who read a paper before a medical society experiments he had made with artificial food on three infants selected for their healthy condition, all of whom died under the treatment. The doctor regretted the failure of the experiment, but seemed to have had no idea that he had commited murder. Dr. Trautvetter may also labour under a delusion, but we sincerely trust that no English surgeon shares it."

A BULL.—The British House of Commons has become indebted to Mr. Syhan for a happy specimen of the Irish bull. Defending Colonel French from some remarks which had been passed on him, he said, "His right hon. friend had retained his seat between thirty and forty years, and was likely, if he lived as long, to retain it for the period of his natural life."

The Chicago Times says that the American people find themselves on the horns of a dilemma. "We (says this journal) are breathing vengeance and prosecuting a heavy claim for damages against Great Britain for doing a good deal less to us than we are anxious to do to the Cuban authorities. We talk of apology, reparation, humiliation, and damages against England, because she recognized our rebellion when it had a president, a congress, a government, in full operation, armies in the field, and ships on the water. The Cuban rebels are said to have a single seaport. They have no Government, save a revolutionary central committee. They have no army organization,—nothing, save a partisan combination, which has less strength and fewer men than, and not as much effectiveness as had some of the southern bushwhackers during the late war. We are, therefore, reduced to a most awkard dilemma. We must either give the Cuban revolutionists the go-by, or yield our claims against Great Britain. If we prosecute the latter, we must ignore the former. We are reduced to that most pitiable of all conditions in which a Yankee can be found, to-wit, we cannot filibuster, and bully the British lion, at the same time. To hate England, and filibuster for the annexation of Cuba, are ingrained in every man who is native to our soil. Hence, this provoking conjunction whereby we are obliged to surrender either the one or the other of these two Yankee dispositions. Could the two be voted on, as to which one should be given up, we believe the thing would not elicit a dozen ballots, for the reason that no man could ever bring himself to a decision as to which he least values."

The following is an account of a recent duel between two Indians at Helena:—A few Indians were in a cabin occupied by the employers of the mill, when one of them displayed his revolver at the same time expitating on its merits and his own extraordinary skill in its use. This he carried to such an extent that another brave of the the party denounced him as a braggart, at the same time saying he would put him to shame at his own game. Whereupon native No. 1 proposed a test of skill, giving his opponent the advantage of a rifle, his favourite weapon. This was at once acceded to, and immediate preparations were made for a duel in their own peculiar style. By this time about twenty warriors had collected, and all repaired a short way from the cabin, where they marked off about forty feet—the distance that was to separate the hostile savages. During these preparations the doomed warriors looked upon each other with the most stoic indifference, and the crowd waited for the denouement in silent wonder. When all was made ready the opponents took their position with their heels on the mark—back to back—one with the revolver and the other with his rifle One of the natives had been selected to act as second to both. He took his position a little aside from the line of fire; waved a spear, decorated with paint and feathers, two or three times above his head; gave the terrible war-whoop, and on the instant, the duellists wheeled and fired. Both fell—one shot through the brain, the other pierced to the heart.

SCENE ON THE OHIO.—Our boat stopped to take in wood. On the shore among the crowd, was a remarkably stupid looking fellow, with his hands in his pockets and his under lip hanging down.

A dandy, ripe for a scrape, nods and winks at all around, saying, "Now I'll have some fun. I'll frighten that greenhorn."

He jumped ashore with a large drawn "Bowie," brandishing it in the face of the "green'un," exclaiming—

"Now I'll punish you—I've been looking for you, for a week."

The fellow stared stupidly at his assailant; he evidently did not know enough to be scared; but, as the bowie knife came near his face, one of his huge fists suddenly vacated his pocket and fell hard and heavy between the dandy's eyes, and the poor fellow was floundering in the Ohio.

Greeny then jumped on board our boat, put his hands in his pocket, and looking around, said:

"Maybe there's somebody else that's been looking for me a week."

COPYRIGHT IN CANADA.—A great Meeting on the subject of copyright has been held in Montreal. Reprints of British works issued by American firms are admitted into Canada upon payment of a Customs duty of 12½ per cent., and the proceeds are handed over to the authors. The Canadian publishers ask that they may be allowed to issue these works upon payment of a like amount, and state that were they permitted to do this, they could undersell the American publishers, and afford employement to a large number of persons in Canada who are at present compelled to seek it in a foreign country. A petition in this sense has been sent to the Dominion Parliament.

BLOOD-HOUND JUSTICE.—A writer in the London Dispatch says, "Disgusted as we all must be with the outrageous and mischievous Fenian folly, and the frequent agrarian murders, and disposed as we are to support the Government in strong repressive measures, we are not yet prepared to accept the proposition of certain writers in the Dublin Express, and employ bloodhounds to hunt down fugitives even if they were murderers. One correspondent says:—'From long experience abroad in the breeding and training of that hound, I can safely say that he will bring a substantial 'message of peace' to Ireland." This gentleman had better go abroad again. We are not disposed to adopt bloodhounds as substitutes for policemen.

The other day a young lady stepped into a well known establishment in town, and inquired of a handsome clerk:

"Sir have you any mouse-colored ladies gloves?"

"Mouse-colored, Miss?"

"Yes, a sort of gray—just the color of your drawers;" meaning the store drawers which were painted gray.

"My drawers, Miss," ejaculated the young man, glancing down at his dress to see if everything was right and tight. My drawers, Miss! Why I don't wear any!"

A steam velocipede has been constructed in New York, with only one fault; the driver is half roasted by the boiler, and is liable to be blown off at a tangent.

AUCTION SALE THIS DAY.

IN SIX DAYS!—It is confidently announced that, a month hence, the journey between San Francisco and New York will be made in six days! Just think of it. In dealing with the project of travelling by railway, as viewed at that period, the London Quarterly Review of March, 1825, said:—"We are not advocates for visionary projects that interfere with useful establishments. We scout the idea of a railway as impracticable! What can be more palpably absurd and ridiculous than the prospects held out of locomotives travelling twice as fast as stage coaches! We should as soon expect the people of Woolwich to suffer themselves to be fired off upon one of Congreve's ricochet rockets as to put themselves at the mercy of such a machine, going at such a rate." What would have been thought at that period of any man who would have had the boldness to predict what has now been literally fulfilled?

FROM NANAIMO.—The steamer Sir James Douglas, Capt. Clark, returned from Nanaimo at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, bringing down the officers and members of the D. G. Lodge F. and A. M., of B. C., who went up on Wednesday last. The Rev. Mr. Aitken and the Hon. A. Francis were among the passengers. Mr. Francis had gone up for the purpose of adjusting a difficulty which had arisen between the Captain of the American ship Isaac Jeans and his crew, the ship being now at Nanaimo taking in a cargo of coal. It appears that the men refused to work or return to the ship. The Captain appealed to the local Magistrate, and ultimately to the American Consul. By the latter authority the men were discharged without their pay. The Captain arrived by the Douglas in quest of another crew.

MASONIC.—A quarterly communication of the District Grand Lodge of British Columbia, was held at Nanaimo, on Wednesday evening last. The D. G. Lodge was opened by D. G. Master, R. Burnaby, assisted by the officers and brethren of the Victoria and Nanaimo Lodges. The business of the Session was transacted with harmony and satisfaction, and the interchange of fraternal greetings was of a very pleasant character. On Thursday, D. G. M. Burnaby entertained the brethren of Nanaimo at dinner, on board of the steamer Sir James Douglas, and in the evening the resident brethren entertained their visitors at the Old Flag Hotel. The brethren of the Order that went up from Victoria, speak of the trip and the occasion as one of very great pleasure.

EMBEZZLEMENT.—The case of Jean Farragut, who was charged by Mr. Woods, the Official Assignee, with embezzling, or unlawfully making use of a portion of the estate of M. Planillo, deceased, was again before the Police Court yesterday. The accused admitted that he had used a portion of the estate, but that he had done so, at the request of the deceased on his death-bed, in support of deceased's family, and, although the act might be illegal, the intention was honest. The Court strongly advised a settlement of the case between the parties rather than force a legal issue, and for that purpose the case was postponed until Wednesday next. Mr. Green appeared for the Official Assignee, and Mr. Bishop for the accused.

PEACE.—BE CALM!—The Archbishop of Canterbury has stretched his episcopal wand over the troubled waters, and the contending elements will soon be still. The Tory Peers who buckled on their armour for the fight are laying it off; and the Irish Church Disestablishment Bill will pass through the House of Lords, in all probability, by a larger majority than was counted against it. Even Lord Derby may have to be taught that "discretion is the better part of valour." Thus right triumphs, and the world breathes freely again.

WHALING.—Capt. Dawson sailed last evening, for Cortez Island, with his schooner Kate. Mr. Dawson has established a whaling station at Cortez Island, where he has erected comfortable buildings and has a fine garden, &c. He feels confident of sending the Kate down in two months laden with oil. We wish this and all such enterprises success. Men who open up and establish such enterprises do much for the country, and deserve to reap a rich reward.

SUICIDE.—It will be seen by reference to our telegraphic despatch, that the Hon. John Tobin, of Nova Scotia, has committed suicide. No reason is assigned, and we feel utterly at a loss to comprehend the case. Mr. Tobin was one of Nova Scotia's foremost public men. He was a member of the Johnston Ministry, and was defeated at the general election on the question of repeal. He was a member of the Government which carried that Province into the Dominion.

RALLYING.—The Cuban revolutionists would appear, according to latest accounts, to have renewed their strength and courage, and to have better prospects of success than ever.

BIGGER STILL.—Mr Carr sent us a basket of strawberries yesterday, one of which measured exactly 6½ inches in circumference, and weighed one ounce and three-quarters! Nine and a half of such berries would make a pound; at least so says our "Devil," and he is very apt at figures. We invite our Seattle contemporary to make a note of this, and to forgive our scepticism respecting his five and a half inch berry.

ADMIRALTY COURT.—On Monday next there will be a sitting of the Court of Admiralty, to consider as to the disposition of the proceeds of the sale of the brig Byzantium. The two principal claimants being, the widow of the late Mr. Trahey and the former Captain of the brig.

EMIGRATION.—It will be seen by reference to our yesterday's dispatch, that emigration from England to this Continent has commenced in good earnest. Eighty thousand in a single week is something to think about. We hope means will be employed for directing a fair per centage of that immense tide into British territory.

PRACTICE.—The Deluge Fire Company were out last evening, with their engine for a practice. The muster was pretty large and the muscle was well applied, but they could not quite come up to the Tiger. One stream was thrown over the top of Wells Fargo's flagstaff. The wash was quite refreshing.

FRANCE.—The composition of the new Corps Legislatif would not appear to be nearly as revolutionary as we were led to suppose from previous announcements. A Government majority of 136 in a House of 290, leaves little room for present apprehension on the part of the Emperor

DISMISSED.—Manuel Duett from remand, on a charge of stealing $60, the property of C. Levy, underwent a final examination yesterday, and was discharged from custody, there not being sufficient evidence to justify a committal. Mr. Courtney appeared for the accused.

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, sailed for New Westminster yesterday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, with 25 tons of freight and 12 passengers among whom were Messrs F. J. Barnard, Hugh Nelson, W. Lawson, Fitten and J. S. Clute.

ANOTHER REVOLUTION.—It will be seen that the Post Office Department of Great Britain has completed arrangements for taking over all the telegraph lines of the United Kingdom. Upon this hangs a revolution in the matter of correspondence.

ARRESTED.—Matthew and Saml. Roland, brothers, were arrested last evening, for boisterous and disorderly conduct, by officers Kennedy and Houghton, and lodged in jail. To-day they will call at Mr. Pemberton's bar and settle.

NEWFOUNDLAND GOING IN.—The Province of Newfoundland stands upon the threshold of the Dominion; but she does not look back. The Commons have said "come," and it only remains for the people to respond at the polls, "we come quickly."

THE POSTS UP.—The work of planting the posts for the telegraph lines to Government House and to the Colonial Secretary's office, was completed yesterday, and the wire will be stretched in the course of a day or two.

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE.—A poor demented creature named Shaft, was taken in charge by the police yesterday and lodged in jail, the only asylum in the Colony for persons of unsound mind.

NOVA SCOTIA STILL RECALCITERANT.—The Blue-noses, or at least a majority of their local representatives, still continue to kick against the pricks.

SPORTING NEWS.—In our telegraphic department will be found some interesting English Turf News.

AUCTION.—Mr. J. P. Davies will sell, today, at his salesroom, a valuable lot of furniture. See advertisement.

TELEGRAPHIC.

SPECIAL TO THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

CANADA.

OTTAWA, June 9—The resolution for the admission of Newfoundland into the union passed in committee of the House of Commons, last night.

HALIFAX, June 9—In the Assembly, to-day, the Attorney General alluded to the subject of repeal of the Union Act. He said the British Legislature had not power to tax Nova Scotia, therefore it had not power to alter her constitution. The Province must be liberated from the union. Mild measures had already been taken for the attainment of this object; now they were about to try stronger measures. He moved that the Attorney General of Nova Scotia be authorized to obtain, in the higher English Courts, a judicial opinion as to her forced union with Canada. He stated that if, after all, the freedom of the Province should not be secured, they would resort to extreme measures. He did not intimate what those measures would be. The debate attracted little interest. John Tobin, ex-member of the Legislature, committed suicide by shooting this forenoon.

WEST INDIES.

NEW YORK, June 9—Information from reliable sources in Havana shows that the Cubans are making an active offensive movement. They were never in better spirits or more sanguine of success.

EUROPE.

MADRID, June 9—The project for a Regency was debated at great length in the Cortes yesterday. At last it was referred to committee. During the discussion, Alaz took the position that the election of a King at the present time is impossible.

VIENNA, June 8—It is reported that a treaty has been made by the Commission appointed by the Turkish and Persian Governments to arrange the boundary between the two countries.

LONDON, June 8—Despatches from Cork, mention that Johnson a printer, was arrested in that city, on the charge of being connected with the Fenians. The particular offence consisted in his circulating treasonable documents among the soldiers.

At Ascot races, second day, the Royal Hunt cup was won by See-Saw; the Fern Stakes by Frivolty; the 110 lb. Ascot Biennial by Alpine Stock, beating Resworth, second. Martyrdom third. The Ascot Triennial was won by Mahogany; Coronation Stakes by Martinque; the Ascot Derby by Primomes.

LIVERPOOL, June 8—The emigration to America is setting in very strongly. 80,000 left last week.

PARIS, June 8—The general result of the elections throughout the country is now known. The next Corps Legislatif will be composed of government members, 213; independent, 42; radicals, 35. Serious riots occurred at Nantes and Bordeaux, yesterday.

LONDON, June 10.—The Archbishop of Canterbury has counselled the Bishops in the House of Lords not to oppose the Irish Church bill.

A banquet was given to-night to a deputation from Ireland, now in this city, being petitioners against the Irish Church bill. Many Tory peers and clergymen of the Established Church were present.

It is said that fifteen Conservative peers will decline to follow the policy of rejection, endorsed by a majority at their meeting last Saturday, and the defection of others is probable.

The Post-office Department has completed arrangements for purchase of the lines of the Telegraph in the United Kingdom, in accordance with the bill passed by Parliament last year.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, June 10—The Herald's special from Havana, on 7th, via Key West, on 9th, says the emigration of Cubans from the Island has again commenced. Large numbers are leaving. A commission of Volunteers met yesterday, but adjourned without taking action. It is reported that Minister Roberts has telegraphed from Washington to the authorities at Havana, warning them of their precarious condition.

CALIFORNIA.

SUMMIT, June 10—Summit of Sierras of Nevada, 105 miles from Sacramento. Simonton, says Pullman's Palace sleeping train arrived here this afternoon; having run from Promontory Point, over the Central Pacific, at a speed of thirty-five to fifty miles an hour on levels, and twenty five to thirty-five in ascending grades. The road is generally in good condition, and thousands of workmen are daily employed in leveling up the track, where it is slightly settled by heavy rains. There is no reasonable grounds for the eastern story of danger from any source on the entire line across the Continent. A month hence, the time between New York and San Francisco should be made in six days.

Signed J. W. Simonton.
